THE VIEWS OF A POLITICIAN

Who Made a Trip Through the West in the Interest of Reed, but Found "the Prairies on Fire" for McKinley-The Secret of the Ohio Man's Popularity with the Masses-A Word of Warning About the "Favorite Son" Racket.

Washington correspondence of Chicago Record: "Yes, the prairies are on fire for McKinley," said a veteran politician who has just returned from an extended trip through the country. There was never anything like it. The enthusiasm for Blaine in 1876 wasn't a circumstance. If the people had been allowed to have their way that year, Blaine would have recived the nomination by acclamation, and McKinley would receive it this year, but the politicians beat Blaine then just as they are trying to beat McKinley now, and with the same sort of tactics.

with the same sort of tactics.

"No, I'm not for McKinley. I have nothing against him. He would make an excellent President, for he is a cool-headed, safe, conservative man with a mind of his own, and a conscience, but I personally prefer Reed, and have been trying to do some missionary work for him in the west, but it was useless. He has plenty of friends and admirers, but they all want McKinley for President.
"That was a pretty good bon mot that your man Mason got off at Chicago a few weeks ago; at least they attribute it to him."

"What was It?"
"Why, he met a friend from the east.

"Why, he met a friend from the east, an old politician, and asked him who he

"McKinley," was the reply.
"McKinley! exclaimed Mason. 'Nody is for McKinley out here except te people.'

That was as true as gospel. The peo

"That was as true as gospel. The people are for McKinley everywhere I went and the local politicians are for him. too, because they follow public sentiment, but the bosses are against him." "Why?"

"Because they prefer some one else, just as I do, I suppose."

"The situation is very much as. It was about this time in 15%. Baine, Morton and Conkiling were the only genuine candidates then, as McKinley, Reed and Allison are the only genuine candidates how, but the politicians tried the 'favorite-son' racket just as they are trying it now. They brought out. Bristow in Kentucky, Hayes in Ohfo, Hartranft in Pennsylvania, Jewell in Connecticut, Washburne in Illinois and Wheeler in New York, and kept away from Blaine more than enough votes to nominate him on the first ballot, although he was clearly entitled to them. He had very nearly a majority as it was, sunstroke and Milligan letters not-withstanding, and they had to turn off the gas in the convention hall to get an adjournment so that they might form a combination. I advise McKinley's friends to keep him out of the sun on hot days and watch the lighting apparatus at St. Louis.

"But it isn't often that the same game can be played successfully a second time, and I do not believe the favorite-son scheme will win again. It hasn't worked smoothly in New York, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Illinois and Minesota thus far, and the instinct of self-preservation which is so strong in politicians will break up the present combination before the 16th of June, You will begin to see pliggims from the 'favorite-son' states wending their way toward Canton pretty soon.

"What is the secret of McKinley's poularity? I don't think there is any secret about it. It isn't the man himself, but the principle he represents. It's the protection idea. The repeal of reciprocity and the passage of the Willison-Gorman tariff bill are responsible. McKinley is a student, a man of facts and figures, who has never attempted to master but one subject, but that happens to be the subject that is uppermost

If you catch a cold or a chill you may be in great danger, but there is a way to avoid serious results.

If you are threatened with a cough, the grip or pneumonia, ordinary treatment may fail to benefit you, but there is one thing which will afford you speedy relief.

If your system is run down and you are bilious, constipated, nervous, irritable and low-spirited, you may imagine there is no help for you, but there is something that will overcome this unhealthy condition.

If you wish to get tone, strength, energy, ambition and new life, lose no time, but provide yourself with the Canada club, last night, Mr. Chamberlain, replying to a toast, said:

If you do not already know, remember that this is not an ordinary whiskey, but a pure medicinal stimulant, having a wonderful effect on the system. It stirs up the sluggish blood, creates a healthy appetite, promotes digestion and makes weak, weary people feel strong and well.

"There were many prominent men on both sides of the Atlantic who once assumed that it was the manifest destiny of Canada to be absorbed into the great republic on its southern border. The recent isolation that seemed to threaten the United States evoked from all the colonies, especially from Canada, an outburst of loyalty and affection, which testified that if war broke out the mother, country would not be left to her fate."

Mr. Chamberian then discussed a proposed customs arrangement between England and her colonies that would create a greater empire than history has ever known. Nothing could be done, however, until imperial unity, founded on the common weal, had been decided upon.

At the banquet of the Associated Chambers of Commerce Charles T. Ritchle, the president of the board of trade, dwelt upon the feeling here antagonistic to a conflict with the United States in the present difficulty. The American government, he said, was now considering proposals emanating from Lord Salisbury, which it was hoped would result in the establishment of a system by which arbitration would be possible in all cases.

Speculation in stocks was again to day restricted, the total dealings showing only an insignificant increase over Wednesday's silm total. Prices moved irregularly and at the volition of the scalpers. Of commission house operations there was not a trace. The industrial shares were attempted to be galvanized by the usual conflicting rumors and suggestions, but even they larged unresponsive to the ordinary effective manipulation. At the same time an underline of strength, chiefly due to the coverings of short contracts was apparent, despite sales at intervals to take profits and the pulling out of new lines of shorts. The early dealings were on a very moderate scale, but the market was favorably affected by higher prices for American securities in London, where the fortnightly settlement was in progress. The improvement as a rule, however, was confined to fractions and a reactionary tendency developed later in the day.
